

Liskow Served as Derivatives Counsel to Chicago Bridge & Iron Company

05.17.18

Liskow & Lewis served as derivatives counsel to Chicago Bridge & Iron Company for the business combination of the company with McDermott International, Inc. valued at $6 billion.

The Liskow & Lewis team was led by corporate partner Nina Skinner with John Bradford advising on domestic and international tax and Joe Wilson providing deal support.

For additional information about the transaction, click here.

For additional information about the firm's derivatives practice, please contact Nina Skinner.

contact

Rachael Schilling
Marketing

504.299.6126
rschilling@liskow.com

related people

Joseph T. Wilson
John T. Bradford
Nina Bianchi Skinner

related practices

Business
Business Law
Tax