

Liskow Managing Partner, Bob Angelico, Awarded Louisiana Certified Public Accountants' Distinguished Service Award

7.22.19

Liskow & Lewis is pleased to congratulate Bob Angelico for being recognized by the Society of Louisiana Certified Public Accountants (LCPA), the premier organization of accountants in Louisiana. Bob was awarded LCPA's Distinguished Service Award for his significant work supporting the Society's state and local taxation legislation efforts. Bob has been an active participant in LCPA for years. He is a past LCPA President and currently serves as the Society's representative on the Louisiana Tax Institute. He has previously received LCPA's Outstanding CPA in Business and Industry Award and its Outstanding Continuing Professional Education (CPE) Discussion Leader Award.

Bob is a nationally known business lawyer with years of experience helping top-tier companies with sophisticated state and local tax issues throughout Louisiana. He works to minimize the taxes of his clients, which include manufacturers, retailers, wholesalers, non-profits, construction businesses and other entities of all types and sizes.

Clients benefit from Bob's extensive experience with Louisiana state and local taxes, advising clients in entity formations, restructurings, acquisitions and dispositions. Businesses facing litigation in the energy sector often turn to Bob for income and franchise tax, sales and use tax, severance, and ad valorem tax disputes and other state and local tax claims.

Bob is a Board Certified Tax Specialist – as certified by the Louisiana Board of Legal Specialization – and a licensed Certified Public Accountant. He is consistently recognized for his tax practice by both national and local publications. Chambers USA has recognized Bob for his practice since 2013, ranking him in its highest tier–Band 1. He has also been recognized by Best Lawyers in America since 2003 and was listed as the New Orleans Tax Law “Lawyer of the Year” in 2018. Only one lawyer is recognized by Best Lawyers as a “Lawyer of the Year” for each practice area and geographic location. Bob has been recognized by Louisiana Super Lawyers since 2007, and by New Orleans Magazine as a “Top Lawyer” since 2015.

related people

Robert S. "Bob" Angelico

related practices

Tax

