

Liskow & Lewis Announces The Election Of Robert S. Angelico As Firm President and Managing Partner

04.13.15

The Shareholders of Liskow & Lewis are pleased to announce the election of Robert S. Angelico as the firm's new President and Managing Partner.

Mr. Angelico succeeds R. Keith Jarrett who served in the position for the past six years. "Bobby has long been one of our most capable leaders," said Mr. Jarrett. "His election as President and Managing Partner insures that the firm is in skillful hands."

Mr. Angelico received his J.D. from Loyola University in 1986, was elected a Shareholder of Liskow & Lewis in 1993, and has served as head of the firm's business and tax section. His practice serves multinational, national, and local business clients in matters pertaining to Louisiana tax law.

Upon assuming his new role, Mr. Angelico expressed appreciation for the legacy of the position. "Liskow & Lewis has always enjoyed a reputation of excellence," he said. "We owe a debt to all who have provided the solid and visionary leadership that positions us to meet today's challenges, and to continue to deliver the highest level of service to our clients."

Mr. Angelico served as the President of the Society of Louisiana Certified Public Accountants from 2010 – 2011, is past chairman of the Tax Section of the Louisiana State Bar, and currently serves on the Board of the Louisiana Association of Business and Industry.
