

Business

Liskow & Lewis business lawyers advise and assist clients on a wide range of transactions and issues central to the complex challenges and opportunities of today's marketplace.

Overview

Experience handling matters of banking and finance, organizational structure, acquisition, and restructure, real estate, tax, labor & employment, and employee benefits affords our clients with advice and counsel wherever legal concerns impact business.

The firm's reputation for excellence has 80-year-old roots, dating back to representation of clients in the work that continues to define doing business along the U.S. Gulf Coast. Today this excellence is manifest in the recognition of clients, peers and industry thought leaders. For example, the firm received recognition in Chambers USA 2018 for our practices in Banking & Finance, Bankruptcy/Restructuring, Corporate/M&A, Labor & Employment, and Real Estate. In addition, fifteen Liskow & Lewis lawyers are recognized by the publication.

The recognition from clients and peers is not an accident. Individual excellence combines with an increasingly rare firm infrastructure to insure a client's matter receives the attention and experience of the Liskow & Lewis lawyer or team best situated to deliver excellence and value.

Our business lawyers serve clients in the energy and natural resources, environmental, maritime, oil & insurance sectors as well as local and regional corporate enterprise in virtually all industries. Working closely with the firm's litigation team when disputes arise, the Liskow & Lewis business section lawyers provide advice and counsel on a day-to-day basis, and at each critical juncture of a business.

contact

Neil C. Abramson
504.556.4009
nabramson@liskow.com

Donald R. "Don" Abaunza
504.556.4110
drabaunza@liskow.com